High Holy Day Campaign

Dear Temple Family:

I come to you as your new temple president to offer you a glimpse of what I see when I walk through the doors of Temple Isaiah. I see a place that offers me quiet and contemplation, the sounds of children laughing or of voices lifted in song. It's a place to make friends and join with others to create a sacred community where we can deepen our relationship to God and with each other. A place where I hope each of you can find the spark of divinity within yourself.

It is this spiritual and vibrant community that I am proud to dedicate my time working with dedicated lay leaders, inspiring clergy and devoted staff to ensure that our synagogue is a community built upon the sacred traditions that helps us bring relevancy and wisdom to our hectic lives.

Our annual High Holy Day Campaign allows us to strengthen the foundation of Temple Isaiah enabling it to continue as a model for empowerment, education, prayer and activism. We ask you to make Temple Isaiah a philanthropic priority by contributing to this year's campaign. This appeal, which is a critical part of our funding, is needed to help provide:

- Support for an extensive adult enrichment and education program with something for everyone.
- An innovative religious school whose programs guide parents and their children toward fulfilling Jewish lives.
- A well-regarded pre-school that provides our youngest members with a wonderful Jewish foundation.
- A multi-faceted commitment to Tikkun Olam (Repairing the World)
- The Center for Wellness and Gratitude dedicated to empowering our temple members to bring wholeness and wellbeing to our entire community.
- Participatory worship that gives voice to our prayers through music, poetry and art.
- The assurance of the future of Reform Judaism at Temple Isaiah by enabling all who choose membership to do so without hardship or economic distress.

I am grateful to be a member of this temple and hope you feel the same. We are counting on you to show your support of the constant work we do together in pursuit of our dreams by contributing to the High Holy Day Campaign. We appreciate your dedication and donation.

Regards,

Modim anachnu lach...

For the opportunity to give, and to be part of an enduring and exquisite tapestry of peoplehood and community, we are thankful.

“Modim anachnu lach” is the way we say thank you in our prayers. At this sacred time of year, we say these words also to you.

For supporting Temple Isaiah which is the foundation for individual and communal Jewish growth, for lifting up a community where lifelong relationships are forged, where personal stories are shared and become part of the story of a people, modim anachnu lach.

For your ongoing support of Temple Isaiah which is committed to lifelong learning, innovative programming and dynamic schools, exploring ancient tradition and discovering wisdom relevant to today, modim anachnu lach.

For your generosity to a community where we respond to the cries of injustice and seek to heal a broken world, a community where the language of the soul is given heartfelt voice through music, poetry and meaning, modim anachnu lach.

For helping to ensure the future of our warm and loving home away from home, for being an essential participant in our vision, we thank you.

Rabbi Zoë Klein

Mission Statement

Our mission at Temple Isaiah is to create and nourish a kehillah kedoshah, a sacred community, where we strive for empowerment, relationship, education, ritual and activism.

We struggle, we sing, we stand and we step forward in pursuit of our dreams. We recognize that we are constantly in process as we continually reinterpret our lives together.

We do this work together: with the state of Israel and the Jewish people, with the Reform Jewish Movement, and with our neighbors near and far.
