DESTINATION

About Barcelona

Barcelona is a city that combines striking architecture, deep history and a vibrant food culture. It's easy to be drawn in by the landmarks, the soaring spires of the Sagrada Familia, the playful curves of Gaudi's houses and the bustle of La Rambla, but what makes the city is the vibrant atmosphere. The Gothic Quarter, with its maze of narrow lanes and hidden courtyards, carries layers of history. Among them is the old Jewish quarter where you sense the presence of a once-thriving community.

Beyond its visual splendour, it thrives as a cosmopolitan hub where cafes spill onto tree-lined boulevards, local markets showcase Catalan produces at its best, and the city's food scene is one of Europe's most exciting. Its alive and modern too, balancing art, world-class dinning & the Mediterranean.

Girona

Just an hour from Barcelona, Girona feels like a step back in time. Its old town is small but full of character, with medieval walls, winding alleys and colourful houses along the riverside.

The Jewish quarter, El Call, is one of the best preserved in Europe, and walking through its narrow lanes is an evocative reminder of the city's past. The Jewish History Museum helps bring that heritage to life with stories and artefacts. Beyond its history, Girona has a relaxed charm and authentic charm.
